Stop the goss…

"If you dislike someone, dislike them alone.
Don't recruit others to join your cause."

Wrap your talking gear around this…

- Has this ever happened to you – someone 'jumping on the bandwagon' just because they didn't like you or another friend?
- What can you do in chat groups if you really dislike someone who's in the group?
- Why is it hard to overcome dislike and hate that's second hand?
- What could happen if someone who disliked you encouraged other people to do the same thing online?
- If you're part of a chat where someone is 'bad-mouthing' someone else and encouraging everyone else to do the same, what could you do about it?
- If you really dislike someone who's in your friend group online or offline, what's something that might help to change this?

Use these discussion starters as a jumping off position to explore the saying. Always try and come up with some actions that would help everyone in the discussion to learn and grow. Be curious, have fun and be prepared to change the way you think – and behave!
